

Janney Family Photos and Bible

Found in the family files of Dean G. Kentner, with other information on the Cain and Vermillion families of Phelps County, Nebraska. Relationship unknown.

Scanned June 2011 by Brad Jackman, grandson of Dean G. Kentner

*Originals in the posession of Bradley S. Jackman at the present time.
A direct descendant should contact me through my website at shoeboxgenealogy.com about receiving the originals, if I haven't already given them to another descendant.*

Note from the Compiler

My grandpa, Dean G Kentner, died in February of 2011. In May of 2011, my family and I returned to Northern California to help grandma by cleaning out the garage. In the process of going through some of his family records we found, we discovered this album and Bible. Dean had inherited some family records of his Aunt Mae and Uncle Leo Monroe, who never had children. Aunt Mae was his mother's sister, and the two were daughters of Daniel Asbury Vermillion. It appears that Mae had previously inherited some family records from her aunt, Addie Cain, who had married Beniah Jayne, who also had not had any children.

Upon seeing the name Janney, I assumed it was a variation of the Jayne name, and put them aside for later inspection. As I have tried to make a connection between the Jayne and Janney families, I have not been able to find any common relatives. I am assuming these Janney family members are related to Beniah Jayne, Leo Monroe, or maybe even some of the other Cain or Vermillion relatives who might have passed the books on to my grandpa.

I have compiled some of the family information I found in the family Bible and in online records. These family group sheets are included at the end, but are not authoritative and should only be used as a guide for further research.

As I have no vested interest in the Janney family, I would be willing to send these items to a descendant of William Janney, if they could show me their relation. By the time you read this, I might have already sent it to someone, but you might as well try! Email me at brad jackman at g mail dot com (take out the spaces and add the appropriate symbols, I'm trying to fool the spambots!)

As a note about the books, I have scanned them as best as I can. The album is only about 4x5 inches, so these are blown up significantly. The black pen marks are my own, replicating the loose scraps of paper that someone wrote on and stuck in the pages and which surely would have fallen out over time. Sorry for the adulteration of original sources, but I just wanted to make sure the captions weren't lost!

I hope this will be helpful to family members. Genealogists usually try to live by the golden rule in their research, so I'm just hoping that if someone finds similar relics of the Kentner, Vermillion, Cain, or Tufford families, they would do the same.

Good luck!
